

I am opposed changes to weaken the indiana no calling law. I love having no calls interrupt my day and it really works. If businesses I use need to contact me, they have my address and usually email. I don't want calls from them offering new things to buy anymore than strangers.

Thank you,

Susan Workman